Medford's New Opera House Opens May 19

Advices to the Courier from T. J. Fuson, formerly of Grants Pass, now one of the managers and lessees of the new Page theater at Medford, state that Medford's magnificent place of amusement will be ready for opening on Monday, May 19, and that the attraction therefore is Maude Adams in "Peter Pan."

Before the sale of seats opened last Thursday, Fuson withheld forty of the best seats in the house for his Grants Pass clientele, to send to T. F. Hanley, from whom they may later be purchased.

These forty seats, which Mr. Hanley is instructed to dispose of at not to exceed $2.50 the seat, are of the identical desirability of those that are being auctioned in Medford in a "red letter day" celebration of the new Page at $5 and $3 the seat.

If a number is secured sufficient to justify the running of a special train to Medford, leaving Grants Pass late in the afternoon and returning after the performance, such a train will be run, and at reduced fare.

Those intending to attend the Maude Adams performance should communicate with Mr. Hanley or Mr. Isham.

Auto Truck Makes Run From Portland

The new thirty horse power Menominee auto truck to be placed on the Grants Pass to Kerby stage and mail run by Messrs. Lister and Herriott, has arrived in the city, being driven in from Portland by Ed. Herriott and Sam Neas. The trip was made easily in two days and a half, which was a good test run for the machine, as it carried a ton of freight in addition to five passengers. They report the roads in very fine condition on the whole, though there were spots where they wallowed to the hubs in mud. Definite announcement of the stage schedule will be made in this paper in the near future. The truck is capable of carrying eight passengers comfortably.

GIVE SPUDS AWAY AT VANCOUVER, WASH.

By United Press Leased Wire. VANCOUVER, Wash., May 9.—Six hundred sacks of potatoes were placed in the streets here today by M. R. Sparks, where any one wanting them may go and help themselves. Sparks stored the potatoes in his basement last fall, but was unable to find a market for them. Thousands of bushels of potatoes planted in Clarke county last season were never dug.
